

Important Shipping Information

Do you wish to use a courier to send materials or documents to your stand? If so, we would appreciate your help, for it is also in your interest!

In order to help avoid the problems which have been occurring quite frequently of late regarding customs clearance for your shipments, we ask that you address your shipments as shown below.

Those exhibitors who have addressed their shipments in a different manner have been facing a delay in customs clearance.

Given the relatively short duration of events, there is a danger that such packages might not be delivered at all.

This is why we ask that you address your shipments as detailed above, in order to ensure that they can be delivered without difficulty.
